

vim security update - (RHSA-2005-745)

Advisory Original Release Date: August 31, 2005

Last Revised: January 18, 2006

Number: ASA-2005-189

Risk Level: Low

Advisory Version: 1.0

Advisory Status: Interim

Overview:

A security vulnerability was discovered in VIM. This vulnerability could allow an attacker the ability to execute arbitrary commands by tricking a local system user into opening a carefully crafted file. This vulnerability requires that local system users enable the modeline. Although certain Avaya system products ship with vulnerable versions of VIM modelines are not enabled by default. The Common Vulnerabilities and Exposures project (cve.mitre.org) has assigned the name CAN-2005-2368 to this issue.

More information about these vulnerabilities can be found in the security advisories issued by Red Hat:

Recommended Actions:

For all system products which use vulnerable versions of VIM, Avaya recommends that customers restrict local access to the server. This restriction should be enforced through the use of physical security, firewalls, ACLs, VPNs, and other generally-accepted networking practices until such time as an update becomes available and can be installed. Furthermore, Avaya does not recommend local system users enable modeline in VIM.

System Products with VIM installed:

Product	Affected S/W Version	Actions
Avaya™ S8700/S8710/S8500/S8300	All versions	Follow the recommended actions above.
Avaya™ Converged Communication Server	All versions	Follow the recommended actions above.
Avaya™ Network Routing (ANR)	All versions	Follow the recommended actions above.
Avaya™ MN100	All versions	Follow the recommended actions above.
Avaya™ Intuity LX	1.1-5.x	Follow the recommended actions above.
Avaya™ Message Storage Server (MSS)	All versions	Follow the recommended actions above.

Avaya Software-Only Products

Avaya software-only products operate on general-purpose operating systems. Occasionally vulnerabilities may be discovered in the underlying operating system or applications that come with the operating system. These vulnerabilities often do not impact the software-only product directly but may threaten the integrity of the underlying platform.

In the case of this advisory Avaya software-only products are not affected by the vulnerability directly but the underlying Linux platform may be. Customers should determine on which Linux operating system the product was installed and then follow that vendor's guidance:

Software-Only Products

Product	Affected S/W Version	Actions
Avaya™ CVLAN	All versions	Depending on the Operating System provided by customers, the affected package may be installed on the underlying Operating System supporting the CVLAN application. Avaya recommends that customers follow recommended actions supplied by the Operating System vendor (e.g. Red Hat) or remove the affected package.
Avaya™ Integrated Management	All versions	Depending on the Operating System provided by customers, the affected package may be installed on the underlying Operating System supporting the Integrated Management application. Avaya recommends that customers follow recommended actions supplied by the Operating System vendor (e.g. Red Hat) or remove the affected package.
