Summary

To simplify the portfolio, and to ensure we have a consistent and unified long-term product and solution strategy, Avaya has decided to End of Sale select products - B179 SIP, B169 DECT and B149 Analog devices, which are part of the Avaya Audio Conferencing B100 series portfolio.

Avaya will continue to offer B199 SIP based Audio Conferencing device with its next gen design and feature rich capabilities. It would be available as an alternate recommendation for the products going EoS.

Effective dates, as mentioned in this document, Avaya will no longer sell (make commercially available) the product material codes as listed.
